

FIRST FOCUS

SABAL PALM PARTNERSHIP

When we say “Love Tallahassee,” there’s no better sign of success than the people who have volunteered at Sabal Palm. Under Rhonda Smith’s leadership and a great ministry group of leadership appointed by the missions committee, these volunteers have delivered the good news through good deeds.

On Sunday, we told just one story about one volunteer affectionately known to the third graders of Sabal as “Mr. Glenn.” Glenn Wright’s example is just one of many that have impacted this community. Through the investment of First Love, the students are taking time to give back to their school.

This project began in May 2013. Since then, 27 have mentored children. Over 100 from the FBC family have volunteered one or two times each week. They have moved classrooms, provided food for backpacks, read stories, adjudicated competitions, torn down a fence, held a basketball clinic, laid sod, sung for the celebration of a new mascot, decorated, and provided food.

I could not be more pleased with the effort and the outcome. I’m so excited about this year and can’t wait for the next step in the process. Through our continual investment in this campus, Christ is changing lives, and we are loving Tallahassee. Contact Rhonda if you would like to be involved in the 2014-2015 school year. Be sure to thank a school teacher and a volunteer. Without Christ doing his good work in them none of this would be possible!

SABAL PALM PARTNERSHIP EVALUATION

As many of you know, FBCTLH partnered with Sabal Palm Elementary School during the past school year. There have been many great things to come from this partnership and we have been excited about what we have been able to accomplish together in the last 9 months. We hope to get your feedback on this partnership from this past year and get your thoughts about moving forward. In less than a minute you can help shape the future of this project. Please take a moment share with us by visiting fbctlh.org/children and participating in the short survey available there. We are excited to hear your thoughts.

ENDOWMENT SEMINAR

How is your Estate Plan? Is it current? Does it do all you want it to do? Life is uncertain, and the events of life do not always come on our schedules. The Endowment Committee at FBCTLH would like to help you with these and other questions you may have regarding your estate planning! Everyone is invited to join us Tuesday, June 17 at 6:00PM for a meal in the fellowship hall, followed by an Estate Planning Seminar at 6:45PM. Mrs. Brenda McCollum, an attorney and team strategist in the Endowed Giving Office of the Florida Baptist Convention will be our presenter. Plan to come and learn some things everyone needs to know! This is a FREE event, but you need to RSVP using the sign-up sheet in your SMBS class or by calling the front desk (850.222.5470).

Mrs. McCollum will be available on Wednesday, June 18 for personal appointments to prepare wills or trust documents for those who would leave a gift of 10% or more to any Florida Baptist ministry, including First Baptist Church. Appointments can only be made by those who attend the seminar on June 17.
