

FIRST FOCUS

A NEW CHAPTER

The New Year offers us a chance to write a new chapter in the story that God is telling through our lives. We don't try to start over as if we have a blank slate or try to undo the past. Instead, with the breath of God's spirit and the gift of his mercy, we turn to God and proclaim his presence in our midst.

This month we're studying Ezekiel to guide our church as we begin a new chapter together. Ezekiel knew that three things had to change in himself and the people in order for God to move—the mind, heart, and will. They had assumed that their old leaders back home in Jerusalem were the source of their problems. They stopped listening to God and each other. They talked past one another trying to return to a world that would no longer exist and blamed previous generations for their problems. They met with Ezekiel with pre-set goals and objectives that did not fit the community that God had in mind for Nippur.

Ezekiel gave them a vision for God to open their minds, challenging their assumptions. Each person was responsible for his own actions. God transplanted their hearts, changing their stony stubbornness into hearts of flesh listening to him and each other. He made them vulnerable to each other so they could listen to the prophet and plan together. The people changed their will. They stopped behaving the way they lived in Jerusalem and obeyed God in the new place he had planted them. They surrendered their preconceived goals and objectives and saw God's vision by retelling and sharing his word.

In their book, Leading from the Emerging Future, Otto Scharmer and Katrin Kaufer write that an openness of mind, heart, and will transforms relationships among people. When these open, relationships are reconciled, lives are renewed, and communities are changed. Changing lives is all about transforming relationships—to God and each other. This year, God has planted you in Tallahassee just as the residents of Jerusalem found themselves planted in Nippur. The people, institutions, schools, jobs, and families we have today are gifts from God to us. These places and people are our mission. Is your mind, heart, and will open for God to use you to transform these relationships? Keep reading Ezekiel.

COMING SOON

FIRST STEP

Are you new to FBCTLH, or maybe you've been a regular attender for the past few months? If so, please join us for our next "First Step" with Dr. Shiell to discuss what it means to be a member of our church family, and how to get plugged in here! We will meet next Sunday, January 18, at 10:15AM in the welcome center. If you have any questions, please contact Hannah Singletary (hannah@fbctlh.org).

YOUTH CHOIR REUNION

Save the date: the Reunion Youth Choir will give a concert next Sunday evening, January 18, at 6:00PM in the sanctuary. The choir will be made up of choir members past and present who will be singing some of their favorite youth choir anthems. A love offering will be taken to offset the cost of this year's Youth Choir Mission Trip to New Orleans, LA.

LIFE GROUPS: EQUIP

Life Groups at FBCTLH are "church where life happens" for our members who have a common place, pursuit, or phase of life with those outside our campus. Based on the life of the early church in Acts 2:41-47, we want everyone to be a part of one group that gathers off site with an outward focus that sees organic growth. Anyone who is interested in being in a Life Group should register to join us for a training session January 31 from 1:00 until 6:00PM - online at fbctlh.org/lifegroups or by using the form available in the connect center.

CONNECTIONS WEEKEND

We hope you are able to join us for 2015's Connections Weekend. Our guest speaker will be Dr. Scot McKnight, a world-renowned speaker, writer, professor, and equipper of the Church. He is a recognized authority on the historical Jesus, early Christianity, and the New Testament. Mark your calendars for February 6-8 for a weekend of main sessions and breakouts on how the gospel affects different parts of your life. Registration now, online or in person. Check out fbctlh.org/connections for more information.
