

FIRST FOCUS

DIFFICULT CONVERSATIONS

First Peter 3:15 says, "Always be ready to make your defense to anyone who demands from you and accounting for the hope that is in you." But how do we prepare for those times? At some point or another, we engage in conversations—and even interrogation—about our faith in Christ and the beliefs that are distinctive to Baptists. Jesus tells us to avoid rehearsing answers to hypothetical test questions. Instead, we are to follow him in every aspect of life, trusting that we'll know what to say and when to say it, if we need to say anything at all.

Beginning March 25, I want to invite you to a new Wednesday night Bible study series entitled, "Calm, Ready, and Unrehearsed: Difficult Conversations Christians Have." We'll be looking at Jesus' instructions to his disciples in Luke 12:11-12, Luke 21:15, and 1 Peter 3:15. Difficult conversations are really pretty small compared to the trials that Jesus told us to expect. So how do we prepare the way Jesus taught us to? We'll look at the examples of Mary, Zechariah's neighbors, Jesus on trial before Herod, and two of Paul's trials and then some living examples of how we have conversations on a variety of topics that are in the world today. We work on what we know, and we prepare in the same way that these examples in scripture prepared. By doing so, we actually gain peace, comfort, and endurance.

March 25: Calm, Ready, and Unrehearsed (Luke 12:11-12, Luke 21:15, and 1 Peter 3:15)
Jesus prepared his disciples to be arrested for the sake of his name but not to prepare a speech beforehand. So why would we not prepare answers in advance?

April 1: A Silent Defense: Jesus on Trial before Herod (Luke 23:6-12)
Jesus gives us an example of what it means to remain silent when on trial and still get your point across. (We will meet in the fellowship hall tonight.)

April 8: The Problem with Mouthing Off (Ephesians 4 and James 1)
Paul, James, and Jesus warn against the Christian problem of garrulousness: talking too much and too glibly. What are the dangers of mouthing off about things?

April 15: The Wise Use of the Tongue (Proverbs 10:18-11:31)
Proverbs offers basic instruction about the wise use of the tongue.

April 22: Storing away Treasures (Luke 1 and 2)
Mary and Zechariah offer two different models of living out Jesus' instructions. We store all kinds of things in our hearts, but one gives us a treasure to draw upon later.

April 29: Where we Are as a Church Body: A Report from the Strategic Planning Committee
Tonight, we'll hear a report about the vision process of our church and the next steps as we discern God's call over the next 3-5 years

COMING SOON

EASTER 2015

Jesus was under surveillance during the last week of his life. So many people watched, but few followed. Each one was an eyewitness to Jesus' last hours, but few obeyed him. According to Mark 14-16, eyewitnesses had four reactions to Jesus: watch, oppose, flee, or follow. What will your response be? Join us on Sundays at 9:00 or 11:15AM as we worship together. Invite your friends to join us for Easter Sunday! Check out fbctlh.org/Easter for more information.

Begin preparing now to welcome guests Easter Sunday morning - by parking at Kleman Plaza, and signing up to volunteer to be a greeter, a caregiver for children, or a parking attendant. Check out fbctlh.org/serve to learn more.

Remember - Good Friday, April 3 // Spend some time remembering what Jesus Christ did for you on this day. Our sanctuary is open from 11:00AM until 5:00PM, and all are welcome to drop in and stay as long as you need for a time of personal reflection. We will provide a printed guide containing scripture, devotions, and prayer. You will also have the opportunity to take the Lord's Supper.

Last Words from the Cross - Good Friday, April 3 // Last words are very significant. Jesus spoke seven times from the cross; each "word" bears a vital message for His followers. This Good Friday, we will meditate together on Christ's words through scripture, reflection, and song. Invite your friends and join us at 7:00PM in the sanctuary.

Family Easter Celebration - Saturday, April 4 // Each year on the Saturday before Easter Sunday, we encourage families to consider the true meaning of Easter in a fun environment with a variety of crafts, games, and activities. We will meet from 10:30AM until 12:00PM in the CLC Gym.
